

It looks as though Mr. Cleveland were more contented as a duck shooter than as a Cabinet maker. He needs a gun in both avocations.

Nobody will be surprised to learn that Chicago wants a naval academy. It would be much more astonishing that there was something that that town didn't want.

Senator Call of Florida declares that the country can trust Mr. Cleveland with respect to the extra session question. The real problem is whether Mr. Cleveland can trust Congress.

The Hon. Jerry Simpson now proposes to smash the McKinley law all by himself. It is evident that Simpson never heard of the Indian, who, after trying one end of his lariat around his waist, lassoed the locomotive of a flying express train with the other end.

It is said that the public debt is swelled about $40,000,000 worth. This will furnish opportunity to the talent in Congress to distinguish itself. The job of reducing that swelling is waiting for somebody. Please notice the number who do not apply for it.

The total number of votes cast November 8th in the United States was near 14,500,000. The Cleveland vote is about 6,750,000. Votes for candidates other than Cleveland, 7,750,000. Majority against Cleveland, 1,000,000. Of course these are round numbers, but the official figures will not vary materially from the close estimates given.

The Vicksburg Herald declares that "the principle of pensions is pernicious." We have always insisted that it was to the principle of pensions rather than merely to the payment of them that the Democracy objected. To the idea that a Nation should protect its protectors that party is opposed by breeding and tradition.

According to the Treasurer's annual report there were in the United States on June 30th last $173,563,745, an increase of $7,000,000 during the fiscal year. That gradual addition to our currency from month to month and year to year just about keeps pace with the increasing demands of business. A more rapid expansion would be sanctioned by neither justice nor wisdom.

There is talk of erecting a creamery at Butler.

ANDREW ATKINSON a brakeman on the Louisville Southern was run over and killed at Harrodsburg.

A BRIGHT little boy named Ford filled his little brother's head full of shot while playing with a gun that wasn't loaded.

The Clark County National Bank cashed checks to the amount of $12,000 for one firm, which it had paid for turkeys.

RICHARD ALBOP was found dead in bed at Harrodsburg, and there are suspicions of foul play. He was 38 and married only two months.

MACK LAWSON, who was married twice to beautiful Miss Eudora Cox at Lexington, has fallen out again and she has gone home to her parents.

SHERIFF O'MEARA of Kenton county has turned over to the State Auditor $100,000, the amount of his collections. The delinquency is $10,000.

PROFESSOR H. M. SMITH, formerly of this city, went in on the recent "tidal wave." He was elected Probate Judge of his district at Suffolk, Conn.

ALBERT McLANE, colored, was shot and killed by Henry Thompson, a railroad boss, at Owensboro. McLean and others were drunk and engaged in a row.

WILLIAM DEVIS is announced in this issue as a candidate for the office of City Weigher. The position could not be placed in a more competent or trustworthy hands.

"Lack the Kisser" is in Louisville. He is not doing a very flourishing business, for he accosted a young lady who leveled a revolver at his worthless head and made him beg for mercy.

Died in Dover.

A telegram was received by the family yesterday announcing the death in Dover, Col., of Mrs. Margaret Cochran, wife of A. B. Cochran formerly of this city. Deceased was a daughter of the late George W. Orr. She and her husband had been living in the West for several years, and they had gone to Dover for the benefit of the latter's health. Her death was caused by tumor of the stomach. She was a woman of many generous qualities, exceptionally loyal to those she loved, and a devoted wife. Her husband alone survives. The remains will be brought to this city for interment, and due notice will be given of the funeral.
